

2010 CAPSEF Annual Conference CALL FOR PRESENTERS

The 2010 CAPSEF Conference promises to be an exceptional event with our new and improved conference format!! It will be held at the Holiday Inn Conference Center on the Cheshire ó Waterbury town line, on Wednesday, March 24, 2010. Once again, with the profession facing one of its most challenging periods ever, the conference will present an opportunity for unique programming and dialoguing.

In an effort to bring forth the best education has to offer, CAPSEF is issuing this call for presenters. Presentations may relate to any educational, clinical or administrative issues. The Professional Development Committee will consider all proposals, but presentations focusing on current challenges facing the profession will be given special consideration. All presentations should fit in a one-hour and thirty minute time slot. Applicants may submit multiple proposals. If you have questions, please contact Allyson J. Deckman at 860.525.1318.

We are looking for Breakout Session Speakers – Morning/Afternoon

The theme of this year's conference is Collaboration at All Levels: CAPSEF Pulls Together.

If you would like to present at the CAPSEF 2010 Conference, please return the enclosed form to Allyson J. Deckman by Friday, December 7, 2009. Thank you for your continued commitment to quality education through the private special education network.

Respectfully,
The Professional Development Committee
